Frittata with Zucchini, Tomato, Onion, Spinach, & Bacon

(compliments of Eileen from PaleoSimplified.com)

Serves 4. Makes a great back-up breakfast during the week if you're in a rush and a great snack alternative.

Ingredients:

2 Tbsp. Extra Virgin Olive Oil

1 Small zucchini, rinsed, halved & sliced into 1/4" slices

1 Med sweet onion, peeled, halved, & cut into thin slices

3 Plum tomatoes, rinsed, halved & cut into 1/4" slices

3 Strips Organic Nitrite Free Bacon, cooked crisp & chopped (can sub turkey)

1 x 8 oz. package organic baby spinach

1 Tbs. chopped fresh flat leaf parsley

8 Brown large Organic Eggs, adding 1 Tbsp. cold water, whisk until frothy

2 Tbsp. Extra Virgin Olive Oil

Sea Salt & freshly ground pepper to taste

Directions: In a nonstick oven safe sauté pan, place olive oil on medium heat. Add onion and cook until onions are transparent. Add zucchini and cook 1 - 2 minutes and add tomatoes and cook until onions are golden brown. Season with sea salt & pepper.

Add spinach and cook until spinach is wilted (you can also use frozen spinach that has thawed and been drained). Add bacon and parsley and cook one minute more. Remove from pan and set aside. Preheat oven set to broil, placing top rack 3/4 of the way up to the broiling element. Wipe the same pan with a paper towel and return heat to pan.

Add Olive Oil, heat for 10 seconds and add eggs. (do NOT stir)

Lower heat. When the bottom of the egg has set to medium-firm, remove pan from heat.

Scatter the cooked vegetables across the entire surface of the egg and place pan under the broil element. Some ovens broil with the door open, others shut. Follow your recommended settings. Cook until the egg is set on the top. It will rise, thicken & bubble. When top is lightly golden, remove the pan from the oven with a potholder.

Let cook for 1 - 2 minutes longer out of the oven. With a spatula, remove the frittata from the pan onto a flat dish. Slice in 4 equal quarters.

Lazy Lady Scramble

If you prep the veggies ahead of time, this is an excellent and FAST breakfast during the week! Sauté Veg: Prep ahead to save time (Makes 4-6 servings once you add the eggs):

1-2 Tbs. Coconut Oil

1 lb. spinach

Sea Salt & Freshly Ground Pepper

Any Veggies you have in the house! (about 2-4 cups total depending on how much you want to make)

(But...you can use any veggies you want: mushrooms, artichoke,

In a large sauté pan, turn the heat to medium. Take ½ bag of spinach and place into pan. With tongs, gently continue tossing until the spinach has wilted (1 minute).

Sauté to your liking (about a few minutes).

Drain the spinach and add to the sauté mixture. Let cool for a few min and then store in a Tupperware (for up to a week).

To complete the scramble:

½ tsp. Coconut Oil

2-3 Eggs (whisked in a bowl)

Sea Salt & Fresh Ground Pepper for seasoning

In a medium sauté pan, heat coconut oil over med heat. Add the eggs and season with salt and pepper. Stir and then let sit until nearly set. Add your desired amount of sautéed veggies to the eggs. (I like a LOT of veg and will put about a ½ - 1 cup of Veg in mine!

For the Steak:

1 pound of strip steaks or other lean steak (about 2" thick)

Kosher or sea salt

Freshly ground pepper

For the Grilled Veg:

3 Tbs. Olive Oil

Sea salt & pepper, to taste

Directions: Pre-heat oven to 375 degrees. Whisk the Balsamic vinegar, salt and pepper together in a small bowl. Slowly incorporate the olive oil until a dressing is formed.

Place the Brussels sprouts on a single layer on a baking sheet. Drizzle the oil and vinegar over the sprouts and gently toss to coat. Bake for 25 minutes, turning once. Sprouts are done when they are lightly browned. Once they are cooked, add the chopped bacon and serve!

Mashed Cauliflower

Serving size = 1 cup

Ingredients:

1 entire head of cauliflower, remove leaves (chopped into small pieces)

1 cup of low sodium chicken stock

2-3 cloves of garlic

Sea salt & pepper to taste

Directions: In a large pot, add the chicken stock and cauliflower. Cover and bring it to a boil. Reduce the heat and simmer for 30-35 minutes until the cauliflower is until very tender, and you can smash it with your fork. (If you need to add more stock during this time, you can add it. Make sure your pot doesn't run dry.)

Add the garlic cloves and simmer for a few minutes longer (about 5). Drain the liquid and add all of the remaining ingredients to a food processor or blender. Blend to your desired consistency. (I like mine pureed with a few chunks.) Season with salt & pepper, and any other seasoning you like! Enjoy.

Mashed Rutabaga with Sautéed Onions

(compliments of Eileen from PaleoSimplified.com)

2 Rutabaga, peeled & cut into chunks

1 Large Sweet Onion, peeled, sliced in half, then sliced in ¼" slices

2-3 Tbsp. Extra Virgin Olive Oil

Sea Salt & Pepper to taste.

When rutabaga is done, drain and place in a large bowl. Mash with fork, potato masher or place in an electric mixer. Work until fluffy. You can add a dash or two of apple cider or chicken stock here to moisten. Add onions and olive oil to mixture. Mix until incorporated. Season with salt & pepper. Tilda's Favorite Roasted Broccoli & Garlic

This is one of my fav go-to recipes for a side dish. It's so EASY & delicious!

Serving size = 1 cup

Ingredients:

1 entire broccoli (about 1.5 pounds) Cut into florets. (if you want to use the stems, cut into bite-sized pieces)

2 Tbsp. Extra Virgin Olive Oil

1 entire garlic, cloves peeled. (I prefer not to slice the cloves, but you can if you like)

Kosher or Sea Salt & Freshly Ground Black Pepper to taste

Directions: Preheat oven to 450 degrees. In a large bowl, drizzle the olive oil over the broccoli. Add the garlic, salt, and pepper and toss well with your hands.

Spread the mixture on a large baking sheet, trying not to let any broccoli overlap. Cook for about 20 min. or until the edges of broccoli are crispy! Try not to eat the entire thing!

Spaghetti Squash

Serving size = 1 cup

Ingredients:

1 Spaghetti Squash (it's actually called that)

cut in half length-wise, and de-seeded

Extra Virgin Olive Oil

Sea salt & fresh ground pepper to taste

Directions: Pre-heat your oven to 400 degrees. Cover a baking pan in aluminum foil and set aside.

Place your two halves face up, and lightly brush the inside with olive oil.

Then, season with salt & pepper to taste. Let the oil soak in for a couple of minutes. Then, place the two pieces of squash face DOWN in the pan, and place into the oven. Cook for 45-60 minutes.

Flip over the squash when it's finished cooking, Use a fork to "shred" & pull out the spaghetti squash. It comes out like spaghetti- pretty AWESOME!

Place the squash in a colander to drain any excess water for a minute or two (covered with foil to keep warm). Top with sauce or season with salt & pepper and enjoy!

Baked Sweet Potato

Please the sweet potatoes on a rimmed baking sheet lined with foil.

Bake for about 45 minutes, or until potatoes are tender. That's it! (Serving size = 4 oz.)

Coach Tilda's Guacamole - You'll never go back to store-bought!

(inspired by Alton Brown from FoodTV.com)

(Makes 4-6 servings depending on size of avocados. About a 1/2 cup)

Ingredients:

3 Haas Avocados, halved, seeded, peeled,
and diced (prep this last to prevent browning)
1 fresh lime, juiced
½ tsp. cayenne pepper
½ tsp. ground cumin
½ tsp. sea salt
2 Roma tomatoes, seeded & diced
½ White onion, diced
1 garlic clove, minced
2 Tbs. Fresh Cilantro, Chopped

Directions: In a large bowl, gently toss the avocado with the lime juice. (This will prevent the avocado from turning brown.) Drain the lime juice into a separate bowl.

Add the cayenne, cumin, and salt to the avocado, and gently mix, mashing the avocado to the consistency of your choice. (I like mine slightly chunky.) Then, gently mix in the tomatoes, onion, garlic, and cilantro. Add back 1 Tbs. of the saved lime juice.

Protein Bars

Homemade Protein Bar Option 1

Ingredients:

1.25 cups slivered almonds, lightly toasted
1 cup pecans, lightly toasted
1/3 cup ground flax meal
3/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon
7 large Medjool dates, pits removed
1/3 cup dried unsweetened cherries or blueberries
1/3 cup dried apricots
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 tablespoon honey
2 scoops (about 60 grams) of unsweetened protein powder
4-5 Tbs. water

Directions: In a food processor, coarsely grind the almonds and pecans. Set aside in a large bowl. Add the flax seed and protein powder to the nut blend. Next, put the dates, blueberries, and apricots into the food processor and pulse only a few times to chop the fruit (should still be small pieces). Add the water, vanilla, and honey and pulse a few more times to combine.

Add your fruit mixture to the nut mixture, and hand mix to combine all the ingredients well.

Simply press your mixture into a glass baking dish and refrigerate for 60 minutes before cutting into bars. Try not to eat them all at once ;-)

Homemade Protein Bar Option 2

Compliments of Marks Daily Apple!

Ingredients:

½ cup slivered almonds

½ cup chopped pecans

¼ cup almond butter (although cashew, hazelnut, walnut)

1/8 - ¼ cup coconut oil

¼ cup almond meal (pulse approximately ¼ cup of almonds until it creates a coarse flour)

1 ½ tsp pure vanilla extract

½ tsp of raw honey (although, this is optional because egg will help hold the mixture together)

½ cup unsweetened whey protein powder (or 60g)

1 large egg

½ teaspoon sea salt

½ cup dried cranberries or blueberries

¼ cup unsweetened coconut to sprinkle on top

Directions: On a cookie sheet, toast nuts and shredded coconut until golden brown. Shake up the tray at least once during cooking.

Once toasted, pour mixture into a food processor and pulse until nuts are chopped and the mixture becomes coarsely ground (sort of the consistency of bread crumbs).

In a mixing bowl, melt coconut oil and almond butter (about 30 seconds) in microwave. Remove from microwave and stir until smooth.

Add vanilla extract, honey and sea salt. Mix thoroughly. Fold in nut mixture, almond meal and protein powder until mixed thoroughly. Add whole egg and mix thoroughly. Fold in blueberries/cranberries.

Press mixture into an 8 x 8 loaf pan. Cook in a preheated oven at 325 degrees for 10 minutes.

Remove from oven, sprinkle a ¼ cup of shredded coconut on top and place under broiler until top begins to brown. Let cool for 10-15 minutes. Cut into 12 pieces/bars.

½ teaspoon ground cinnamon

1 pinch cayenne pepper

½ teaspoon sweet paprika

Preheat oven to 400° With a mandolin or sharp knife, slice the potatoes very thin. Brush a baking pan with a thin coating of coconut oil. (If necessary melt the oil.)

Place sliced sweet potato on the pan in a single layer. Brush each slice lightly with melted coconut oil.

Lightly sprinkle the potatoes evenly with salt, sugar, cinnamon, cayenne pepper & paprika.

Place both trays in oven with equal spacing. Bake until potatoes are tender and begin to crisp on the sides. *Watch them carefully once they start to brown. (approximately 15 - 20 minutes)

*If you have a convection oven, this would be a good time to use it as it allows the air to circulate around the chips.

The One & Only “Original Fudge Babies”

You really can't mess with perfection. Katie generously allowed us to include this recipe in here. For more of her crazy delicious and healthy dessert recipes, check out her blog at: ChocolateCoveredKatie.com

Ingredients:

1 & 1/3 cups pitted dates (220 grams) (I often use SunMaid dates, which are super-soft.)

1 tsp. vanilla extract

1/8 + 1/16 tsp. sea salt

3-4 Tbs. Raw Unprocessed Cocoa Powder (or even Dutch cocoa)

Directions: Blend all the ingredients, using a food processor, Magic Bullet, etc. (No need to blend the dates first; I just blend everything all at once in a Cuisinart food processor.)

Roll into small little balls. (Use plastic wrap if you wish, or smush it all together in a plastic bag so it'll stay together better.) Or, if you want true brownies, shape the dough into bars!

This is true love in a bite.

Grilled Bananas

Ingredients:

1-4 Bananas

1 Tbs. fresh squeezed lemon juice

Cinnamon to sprinkle

Optional: a dash or raw, organic honey

Directions: Pre-heat grill for medium-low heat. Oil the grill grates well so the banana doesn't stick.

Without removing the peel, cut each banana in half lengthwise. Sprinkle each half with lemon juice.

Place banana halves on the grill, with the peel side facing up. Cook for about 2 minutes on each side. Remove bananas from grill, sprinkle with cinnamon and (a little raw honey if you want!) Delish!
